delegates from the peace conference and President Wilson's stand on the Peace question. The message was not made public.

Feeling in official circles increases the belief that while Italy threatens to "go the limit" on her plan to withdraw from the peace negotiations, neither French nor British officials would permit her to do so. The Italian government would not permit her to do so.

It was declared that the coal, food and other supplies daily sent from the United States would cause the Italians to refrain from any stand which would lead to a withdrawal from the peace negotiations.

WINNING LACKING IN VICTORY LOAN DRIVE

New England Subscriptions Only $10,000,000 on Fifth Day of the Campaign ing progress similar to that of the fourth day, the subscriptions would now exceed $10,000,000.

The number of cities and towns which have qualified for community honor flags is still relatively small. There are only nine on the list who have contributed their quota by at least 10 per cent.

Among the large subscriptions reported today were $1,000,000 by the Society for Savings, Hartford, Ct., which represents more than 10 per cent of its deposits, $150,000 by the Burlington, Vt., Savings Bank, $100,000 by the Rockland Savings Bank and $100,000 by the Dine-Burg Bank of Worcester, Mass.

Thirteen new towns in Vermont, one in Maine and one in New Hampshire, have joined the drive.

The report of Victory Loan subscriptions by states for the fifth day and to date is as follows:

NELSON PROVES MERE SET-UP FOR AHEARN

By RINGSIDE

AT 10:30 P. M. on the night of the fight between the two champions, the crowd was so large that the arena was completely packed. The fight was a real one, and the crowd was so large that the arena was completely packed. The fight was a real one, and the crowd was so large that the arena was completely packed.

At no time during the contest was there a chance to extend himself. He merely showed enough boxing ability to get an easy award from referee Dave Tonks.

After the fight, the crowd was so large that the arena was completely packed. The fight was a real one, and the crowd was so large that the arena was completely packed.

Today was to be a busy one for the students. The morning began with a special assembly at breakfast time. The principal gave a short address and then the students sang hymns.

The big game was football at three o'clock. The home team won by a score of ten to six.

The game between the Brinkles and the old T. W. Brown, Jr. was a draw. The crowd was large and the game was very interesting. The Brinkles were better than the Browns, but the Browns were better than the Brinkles. The game was a draw.

The game at Walden should prove to be a very interesting one. The game was a draw.
